

WEEKLY OUTBREAK REPORT

Disease Alerts-Outbreaks reported and responded to by States-UTs through Integrated Disease Surveillance Program (IDSP)

(13th July 2026 to 19th July 2026)

District wise disease alerts-outbreaks reported in the 29th week 2026

29th Week Map

Reporting Status of States-UT's

|                                                                     |    |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| No. of States-UT's Submitted outbreak report (including NIL report) | 19 |
| No. of States-UT's Submitted 'NIL' outbreak report                  | 1  |

INTEGRATED DISEASE SURVEILLANCE PROGRAMME
NATIONAL CENTRE FOR DISEASE CONTROL

22 Sham Nath Marg, Civil Lines, Delhi-110054
Tel No. 23913148, Fax No. 23922677; www.idsp.nic.in

29th weekDistrict wise disease alerts-outbreaks reported in the 29th week 202629th Week MapDisease alerts/outbreaks reported during this week
(N=49)Disease wise no of outbreaks reported under IDSP during 2022-2026 till 29th wk of Every Year

| Unique ID.          | Name of State-UT | Name of District | Disease-Illness       | No. of Cases | No. of Deaths | Date of Start of Outbreak | Date of Reporting | Current Status     | Comments- Action Taken                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|---------------------|------------------|------------------|-----------------------|--------------|---------------|---------------------------|-------------------|--------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| AS/GOL/2026/29/1144 | Assam            | Goalpara         | Only Fever < 7 days   | 15           | 0             | 14-07-2026                | 14-07-2026        | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever were reported from Village Dubapara, Sub-District Matia, District Goalpara. District RRT investigated the outbreak. Both children and adults were affected. 15 blood samples were collected for malaria and typhoid testing. No positive findings were reported. Cases were treated at Dubapara SC. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on vector control measures, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| AS/GOL/2026/29/1145 | Assam            | Goalpara         | Japanese Encephalitis | 1            | 1             | 09-07-2026                | 13-07-2026        | Under Surveillance | A 74 year-old male case of fever with altered sensorium was reported from Village Patpara Pt I, Sub-District Rangjuli, District Goalpara. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The patient developed fever on 24.06.2026 and initially received medication from a pharmacy. Due to lack of improvement, he was admitted to Nagerbera Facility Hospital, Kamrup (R) on 26.06.2026 and was later referred to Sanjivani Hospital, Guwahati on 27.06.2026 due to deterioration. He was subsequently admitted to GMCH, Guwahati on 01.07.2026. CSF testing conducted on 08.07.2026 was positive for Japanese Encephalitis at GMCH by IgM ELISA. The patient died on 9 th July 2026. Source reduction and fogging were done. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on vector control measures, hygiene |

|                            |              |                 |                                 |    |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|----------------------------|--------------|-----------------|---------------------------------|----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |              |                 |                                 |    |   |            |            |                           | and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| AS/MAJ/2026/29/1146 | Assam | Majuli   | Suspected Food Poisoning | 15 | 0 | 17-07-2026 | 17-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of loose motion and headache were reported from Village Borbil, Sub-District Majuli, District Majuli. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 5-50 years. Cases had consumed food at a religious ceremony. Symptomatic treatment was given to cases. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| AS/NAG/2026/29/1147 | Assam | Nagaon   | Japanese Encephalitis    | 1  | 1 | 13-07-2026 | 15-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | A 65 year-old female case of fever, weakness and neck rigidity was reported from Village Krishna Nagar, Lawkhowa Road, Nagaon, Sub-District Nagaon, District Nagaon. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The patient tested positive for Japanese Encephalitis by IgM ELISA on a CSF sample on 06.07.2026 from Microbiology department, GMCH, Guwahati. She passed away on 13.06.2026 at GMCH, Guwahati. Door-to-door case search and a mass fever survey were conducted. Fogging, source reduction and ITBN distribution were done. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on vector control measures, hygiene and sanitation. |
| AS/SON/2026/29/1148 | Assam | Sonitpur | Dysentery                | 11 | 0 | 15-07-2026 | 15-07-2026 | Under control      | Cases of loose motions were reported from Village No. 2 Dibrudarang Bagan, Sub-District Dhekiajuli (Pt), District Sonitpur. District and block RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 16-49 years. House to house survey was conducted. 3 stool                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |

|                            |                     |                    |                                 |    |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|----------------------------|---------------------|--------------------|---------------------------------|----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |                     |                    |                                 |    |   |            |            |                           | samples and 3 water samples collected and tested at DPHL Sonitpur. Stool samples did not show any enteropathogen growth after 48 hours of culture. Water was found not suitable for consumption on MPN test. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| CG/GAR/2026/29/1149 | Chhattisgarh | Gariyaband  | Acute Diarrhoeal Disease | 47 | 0 | 13-07-2026 | 17-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of loose motion were reported from Village Fingeshwar, Sub-District Rajim, District Gariyaband. District RRT investigated the outbreak. Both children and adults were affected. 2 stool samples were sent to Medical College Raipur to test for Cholera. All were negative. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                               |
| CG/RAJ/2026/29/1150 | Chhattisgarh | Rajnandgaon | Acute Diarrhoeal Disease | 12 | 0 | 14-07-2026 | 14-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of loose motion and vomiting were reported from Village Badratola, Sub-District Churiya, District Rajnandgaon. District RRT investigated the outbreak. Both children and adults were affected. A health camp was organized in the village. 13 patients were admitted to CHC Dongargaon for treatment. 2 stool samples were sent to GMCH Rajnandgaon for culture test. No positive findings were reported. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation. |
| CG/SUR/2026/29/1151 | Chhattisgarh | Surguja     | Hepatitis A              | 21 | 0 | 15-07-     | 16-07-     | Under              | Cases of fever and dark coloured urine were reported from Village Pipar Khar,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |

|                     |         |           |                  |   |   |            |            |                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|---------------------|---------|-----------|------------------|---|---|------------|------------|--------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                     | arh     |           | & E              |   |   | 2026       | 2026       | Surveillance       | Sub-District Lakhampur, District Surguja. District and Block RRT investigated the outbreak. House to house survey was done. Cases were treated at a health camp established in the locality. Out of 21 blood samples collected from 02.07.2026 to 21.07.2026 and sent to District Hospital Surguja, 6 samples tested positive for Hepatitis A and 2 samples for Hepatitis E (IgM ELISA). The affected age group was 22-70 years. 3 patients were treated at DH. Water samples collected tested negative for OT test and fecal coliform contamination. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                           |
| GJ/AHM/2026/29/1152 | Gujarat | Ahmedabad | Chandipura Virus | 1 | 1 | 15-07-2026 | 18-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | A 4 year-old male child in a semi-conscious state was reported from Village Chandkheda, Sub-District Poshina, District Ahmedabad. District RRT and experts from NHL Medical College investigated the outbreak. The patient was admitted to SMS Hospital at midnight of 15.07.2026 and took Left Against Medical Advice (LAMA) on 16.07.2026. CSF and serum samples collected and sent to GBRC Gandhinagar on 15.07.2026 tested positive for Chandipur Virus by RT-PCR. The patient expired on 17.07.2026. Active field surveillance, vector control measures including space spraying-fogging and chemical dusting were conducted. No suspected case or sandfly was found in the vicinity of the patient's residence. |

|                            |                |                     |                         |   |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|----------------------------|----------------|---------------------|-------------------------|---|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |                |                     |                         |   |   |            |            |                           | Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on vector control measures, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| GJ/BHA/2026/29/1153 | Gujarat | Bharuch      | Chandipura Virus | 1 | 1 | 19-07-2026 | 19-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | A 20 year-old male case with symptoms of fever with vomiting and confusion was reported from Village Matar, Sub-District Amod, District Bharuch. The case was admitted at SSG Hospital Vadodara. District RRT investigated the outbreak. House to house fever survey was done. Serum sample from the case was collected and sent to GBRC Gandhinagar, tested positive for Chandipura Virus by RT-PCR. The patient died on 19.07.2026. Further, 5 serum samples of children with acute encephalitis syndrome aged less than 5 years were collected and tested negative for Chandipura Virus by RT-PCR. Vector control activities - IRS, dusting, fogging were carried out in the affected area. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on hygiene and sanitation. |
| GJ/SAB/2026/29/1154 | Gujarat | Sabar Kantha | Chandipura Virus | 5 | 1 | 13-07-2026 | 14-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases with symptoms of fever, vomiting and convulsions were reported from Villages Demti, Chandrana, Poglu, Jashvantgadh, Punsri ,Dantral, Ilol, Hadiyol, Demti, Raheda, Antrolivas Dolji, Kanadar and Ajasvas, Sub-District Poshina, District Sabar Kantha. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 2-15 years. Cases were treated at GMERS Himatnagar. Out of 9 serum, CSF samples tested at GBRC Gandhinagar, 5 samples tested positive                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |

|                            |                |                      |                                 |     |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|----------------------------|----------------|----------------------|---------------------------------|-----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |                |                      |                                 |     |   |            |            |                           | for Chandipura Virus by RT-PCR. 1 death was reported in a 14-years-female with fever, nausea, giddiness and unconsciousness on 16.07.2026. Vector control activities - IRS, dusting, fogging were carried out in the affected area. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| GJ/SUR/2026/29/1155 | Gujarat | Surendranagar | Suspected Food Poisoning | 172 | 0 | 17-07-2026 | 18-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of diarrhea, abdominal pain and vomiting were reported from Village Chuda, Sub-District Chuda, District Surendranagar. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 10-17 years. Cases were students of Kasturba Gandhi Balika Vidyalaya who fell ill after consuming food at the hostel mess. A temporary medical camp was established at the school premises. Medicine and ORS packets were given to cases. Further, 22 cases were treated at CHC Chuda, 68 cases at MGS General Hospital, Surendranagar and 42 cases at R.R. Hospital, Limbdi. All cases recovered. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation. |
| GJ/SUR/2026/29/1156 | Gujarat | Surendranagar | Suspected Food Poisoning | 51  | 0 | 14-07-2026 | 14-07-2026 | Under control      | Cases of vomiting, abdominal pain and loose motion were reported from Bharat Seat Ltd. company, Village Naviyani, Sub-District Dasada, District Surendranagar. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 19-31 years. Cases fell ill after eating food served to the employees at the company. Medicine and ORS packets were given to cases.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

|                     |                  |        |             |    |   |            |            |                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|---------------------|------------------|--------|-------------|----|---|------------|------------|--------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                     |                  |        |             |    |   |            |            |                    | 42 patients were treated at health facilities. All cases recovered. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| HR/KAR/2026/29/1157 | Haryana          | Karnal | Measles     | 6  | 0 | 10-07-2026 | 15-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever with maculopapular rash were reported from Village Shekhpura, Sub-District Indri, District Karnal. District RRT investigated the outbreak. Active search for fever cases was done. The affected age group was 2-33 years. Out of 6 serum and throat swab samples collected and sent to PGIMER Chandigarh, 3 samples tested positive for Measles (IgM ELISA). Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on isolation of cases and immunisation, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| HP/KAN/2026/29/1158 | Himachal Pradesh | Kangra | Hepatitis A | 45 | 0 | 13-07-2026 | 13-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever, nausea, loss of appetite and dark coloured urine were reported from Village Bari, Sub-District Bhawarna, District Kangra. District RRT investigated the outbreak. House to house survey was done. The affected age group was 5-61 years. Out of 3 water samples tested at Dr. Rajendra Prasad Government Medical College, Kangra, 2 samples were unsatisfactory for human consumption. 1 serum samples collected and sent to Dr. Rajendra Prasad Government Medical College Kangra tested positive for Hepatitis A (IgM ELISA). 1 water sample collected was non-potable. Chlorination of water sources was done. Community awareness and health education was given by the peripheral |

|                            |                          |                  |                              |    |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|----------------------------|--------------------------|------------------|------------------------------|----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |                          |                  |                              |    |   |            |            |                           | team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| JK/BAR/2026/29/1159 | Jammu and Kashmir | Baramulla | Acute Gastroenteritis | 12 | 1 | 17-07-2026 | 17-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of loose stools and abdominal cramps were reported from Village Machipora, Sub-District Sopore, District Baramulla. District RRT investigated the outbreak. House to house survey was done. Cases developed symptoms after eating food (wazwan). Cases were treated at GMC Baramulla. 3 stool samples were collected for cholera testing at DPHL IDSP Baramulla were the result of all three came negative by culture. 1 death was reported in a 32-years-old-female due to severe dehydration on 15.07.2026. Community awareness and health education was given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation. |
| JK/KUP/2026/29/1160 | Jammu and Kashmir | Kupwara   | Chickenpox            | 7  | 0 | 13-07-2026 | 15-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever with rash were reported from Village Khonu Baba Gund, Sub-District Langate, District Kupwara. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The age group of the affected patients were between 3-17 years. 4 blood samples were collected and sent to DPHL Kupwara for testing. Of these, 3 samples were found positive for V. zoster (IgM ELISA). Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on isolation of cases, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                             |
| JH/LOH/2026/29/1161 | Jharkhand         | Lohardaga | Malaria               | 11 | 0 | 14-07-2026 | 15-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever with bodyache were reported from Village Semardih, Sub-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |

|                            |                  |                  |                                 |    |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|----------------------------|------------------|------------------|---------------------------------|----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |                  |                  |                                 |    |   |            |            |                           | District Kisko, District Lohardaga. District RRT investigated the outbreak. Cases were detected among students of Eklavya Model Residential School. The affected age group was 11–15 years. 11 blood samples were tested by Rapid Diagnostic Test (Malaria Ag). 4 samples tested positive for Plasmodium falciparum, 2 for Plasmodium vivax, and 5 for Malaria mixed infections. Active fever surveillance and mass malaria screening were conducted. Indoor residual spraying (IRS) and anti-larval measures were implemented in and around the affected school. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on vector control measures, hygiene and sanitation. |
| KA/BAG/2026/29/1162 | Karnataka | Bagalkote | Suspected Food Poisoning | 22 | 0 | 14-07-2026 | 14-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of vomiting and loose stools were reported from Village Mughalkhod, Sub-District Mudhol, District Bagalkote. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was <5-14 years. Cases had consumed the mid-day meal at MPS Government School. The affected children were treated at Taluk Hospital, Mudhol, and District Hospital, Bagalkote, and all have recovered. 5 stool samples, 2 rectal swabs, and 5 water samples were tested at DPHL, Bagalkote. All stool samples were negative for cholera (culture). Shigella species isolated from 1 stool sample. All 5 water samples were found to be                                                                    |

|                            |                  |                  |                              |     |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|----------------------------|------------------|------------------|------------------------------|-----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |                  |                  |                              |     |   |            |            |                           | SPP. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| KA/HAS/2026/29/1163 | Karnataka | Hassan    | Cholera               | 18  | 0 | 13-07-2026 | 15-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of vomiting and loose stools were reported from Village Thavanandi, Sub-District Hole Narsipur, District Hassan. District and Taluk RRT investigated the outbreak. Both children and adults were affected. 6 water samples and 7 stool samples were collected and tested at HIMS Hassan. All 6 water samples were found to be SPP and 4 stool samples tested positive for cholera by culture. A temporary medical clinic was opened in the affected village for management of cases. ORS was distributed to the affected individuals. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation. |
| KL/ERA/2026/29/1164 | Kerala    | Ernakulam | Acute Gastroenteritis | 172 | 0 | 14-07-2026 | 14-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of loose stools, vomiting, body pain, general weakness were reported from Village Kanayannur (CT), Sub-District Kanayannur, District Ernakulam. District RRT investigated the outbreak. Both children and adults were affected. Cases had consumed Kuzhy Manthi from a restaurant. 9 stool samples were tested at Govt. Medical College for Bacteriological analysis. 2 samples found to be positive for Shigella sonnei by culture. 2 water samples tested at RPH Lab Ernakulam                                                                                                                                                                              |

|                            |               |                  |                                 |     |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|----------------------------|---------------|------------------|---------------------------------|-----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |               |                  |                                 |     |   |            |            |                           | showed the presence of E.coli on bacteriological analysis. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| KL/KAN/2026/29/1165 | Kerala | Kannur    | Acute Hepatitis          | 22  | 0 | 10-07-2026 | 14-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever, nausea and vomiting were reported from Village Padiyoor, Sub-District Iritty, District Kannur. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 5-42 years. 6 serum samples were sent to different labs for HAV testing (IgM ELISA). All six samples were positive for Hepatitis A. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| KL/KAS/2026/29/1166 | Kerala | Kasaragod | Suspected Food Poisoning | 150 | 0 | 15-07-2026 | 16-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of loose stools, fever and vomiting were reported from Village Chathamath, Sub-District Hosdurg, District Kasaragod. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 3-60 years. The affected individuals had attended a housewarming function. 5 stool samples were collected from affected individuals and sent to the Regional Public Health Laboratory, Kannur, for culture testing. All 5 showed growth of Shigella spp. 2 water samples collected from an open well were tested for bacteriological quality at Kerala Water Authority Laboratory, Kasaragod, and both were positive for Escherichia coli ( E. coli ) and total coliforms, indicating fecal contamination. 5 stool samples were also tested at ICMR–National Institute of Virology (NIV), Alappuzha, |

|                            |               |                 |                                 |     |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|----------------------------|---------------|-----------------|---------------------------------|-----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |               |                 |                                 |     |   |            |            |                           | for Gastrointestinal Pathogen Panel testing and were found to be negative. Community awareness and health education was given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| KL/KOT/2026/29/1167 | Kerala | Kottayam | Hepatitis A              | 9   | 0 | 13-07-2026 | 15-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever, fatigue, vomiting and loss of appetite were reported from Village Puthoorkaddu, Sub-District Changanassery, District Kottayam. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 3 months-36 years. 10 blood samples were tested at GH Changanassery, ICH Kottayam, and Caritas Hospital; 4 tested positive for Hepatitis A by HAV IgM ELISA and 6 by IgM card test. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation. |
| KL/PAL/2026/29/1168 | Kerala | Palakkad | Dengue                   | 29  | 0 | 18-07-2026 | 18-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever, body ache and tiredness were reported from Village Muthalamada-II, Sub-District Chittur, District Palakkad. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 5-45 years. 4 blood samples were sent to the Regional Public Health Lab Palakkad, and all 4 were reported positive for Dengue (IgM ELISA). Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on vector control measures, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                         |
| KL/PAL/2026/29/1169 | Kerala | Palakkad | Acute Diarrhoeal Disease | 135 | 0 | 13-07-2026 | 13-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of vomiting and loose motion were reported from Village Pudukode, Sub-District Alathur, District Palakkad. District RRT investigated the outbreak. Both children and adults were affected.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |

|                            |               |                           |                 |    |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|----------------------------|---------------|---------------------------|-----------------|----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |               |                           |                 |    |   |            |            |                           | The cases had attended marriage-related functions. The cases were treated symptomatically. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| KL/THI/2026/29/1170 | Kerala | Thiruvananthapuram | Dengue   | 25 | 0 | 18-07-2026 | 18-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever, body pain and headache were reported from Village Muthalamada-II, Sub-District Chittur, District Thiruvananthapuram. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 20-24 years. Cases were B.Sc. Nursing students residing in the hostel of Government College of Nursing, GMCH Thiruvananthapuram. 25 samples were tested for Dengue NS1 Ag by ELISA at Micro Lab, MCH Trivandrum, and all tested positive. Fogging and intensive source reduction activities were done. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on vector control measures, hygiene and sanitation. |
| KL/WAY/2026/29/1171 | Kerala | Wayanad            | Jaundice | 10 | 0 | 16-07-2026 | 17-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever, dark coloured urine, abdominal pain, tiredness and diarrhoea were reported from Village Panamaram, Sub-District Mananthavady, District Wayanad. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 5-16 years. 3 blood samples were tested for Anti-HAV IgM by ELISA at DPHL Wayanad, and all 3 tested positive for Hepatitis A. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                   |

|                            |                       |                   |                                 |    |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|----------------------------|-----------------------|-------------------|---------------------------------|----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| LA/LEH/2026/29/1172 | Ladakh         | Leh Ladakh | Acute Hepatitis          | 12 | 0 | 14-07-2026 | 14-07-2026 | Under control      | Cases of loose stools, abdominal discomfort and fever were reported from Village Anlay, Sub-District Nyoma, District Leh Ladakh. District and Block RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 4-9 years. 7 water samples were tested for bacteriological quality by MPN at DPHL, Leh, and all tested negative for E. coli /coliforms. 4 stool samples were tested by culture and sensitivity at DPHL, Leh, and all tested negative for enteric bacterial pathogens. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation. |
| MP/BHO/2026/29/1173 | Madhya Pradesh | Bhopal     | Suspected Food Poisoning | 19 | 0 | 24-07-2026 | 17-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of vomiting and loose stools were reported from Maulana Azad National Institute of Technology (MANIT), Sub-District Huzur, District Bhopal. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 19-23 years. Cases were residing at the institute hostel. Cases developed symptoms after eating food at the hostel mess. Cases were treated at MANIT health dispensary. 7 patients were treated at Sharda Private Hospital. All cases recovered. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and                                  |

|                            |                       |                  |                                 |     |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|----------------------------|-----------------------|------------------|---------------------------------|-----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |                       |                  |                                 |     |   |            |            |                           | sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| MP/BUR/2026/29/1174 | Madhya Pradesh | Burhanpur | Acute Diarrhoeal Disease | 54  | 0 | 18-07-2026 | 18-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of loose motion were reported from Village Ichhapur, Sub-District Burhanpur, District Burhanpur. District RRT investigated the outbreak. House to house survey was done. Both children and adults were affected. House-to-house survey was conducted. 4 stool samples were tested at DPHL Indore and 4 were positive for Salmonella typhi on culture. 3 water samples were also tested at DPHL Indore and were positive for Salmonella typhi . Distribution of ORS and chlorine were done. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation. |
| MP/RAT/2026/29/1175 | Madhya Pradesh | Ratlam    | Acute Diarrhoeal Disease | 122 | 0 | 17-07-2026 | 17-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of vomiting, diarrhea and abdominal pain were reported from Village Ajampur Dodiya, Sub-District Piploda, District Ratlam. District RRT investigated the outbreak. Both children and adults were affected., House-to-house survey was conducted. The probable source of the outbreak was contaminated water from a well. 15 Patients were treated at CHC Piploda. 4 stool samples collected and sent to DPHL Indore, tested positive for S. typhi by culture. 3 water samples tested at DPHL Indore were positive for S. typhi . Distribution of Zinc tablets, ORS packets, and anti-diarrhoeal medicine was done.               |

|                            |                    |                  |                                 |    |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|----------------------------|--------------------|------------------|---------------------------------|----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |                    |                  |                                 |    |   |            |            |                           | Alternative safe water supply was provided. Super chlorination of well water was done. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| MH/BHA/2026/29/1176 | Maharashtra | Bhandara  | Suspected Food Poisoning | 45 | 0 | 13-07-2026 | 14-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of loose stools, abdominal pain, and vomiting were reported from Village Kesalwada (Waghaye), Sub-District Lakhani, District Bhandara. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 10-17 years. The students of Sainik School developed symptoms after consuming dinner at the school mess. Active case search and screening was done. Treatment camp was conducted in the school and chlorination of the water source was done. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation. |
| MH/NAN/2026/29/1177 | Maharashtra | Nandurbar | Acute Gastroenteritis    | 30 | 0 | 12-07-2026 | 13-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of abdominal pain and vomiting were reported from Village Mohida, Sub-District Shahada, District Nandurbar. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The most affected age group was 12-16 years. Cases were students who fell ill after the consumption of an evening meal at the Navbuddha Bastigrah Boarding School. Cases were treated symptomatically. Upon inspecting the school kitchen, unhygienic conditions were observed as the probable contributing factor.                                                                                                                       |

|                            |                    |                 |                                 |    |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|----------------------------|--------------------|-----------------|---------------------------------|----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |                    |                 |                                 |    |   |            |            |                           | Community awareness and health education was given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| MH/RAI/2026/29/1178 | Maharashtra | Raigad   | Malaria                  | 65 | 0 | 18-07-2026 | 18-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever were reported from Village Shedung, Sub-District Panvel, District Raigad. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 0-50 years. 65 blood samples were tested by Microscopy Peripheral Blood Smear (MP) at Primary Health Center Ajivali, Taluka Panvel. 7 were positive for P. vivax and 1 for P. falciparum . Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on vector control measures, hygiene and sanitation. |
| OD/BAL/2026/29/1179 | Odisha      | Balasore | Acute Gastroenteritis    | 15 | 0 | 13-07-2026 | 14-07-2026 | Under control      | Cases of loose motion and vomiting were reported from Village Gopinathpur, Sub-District Soro, District Balasore. District RRT investigated the outbreak. Cases fell ill after consuming food at a marriage function. Cases were treated symptomatically. The affected age group was 12-64 years. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                         |
| OD/BAR/2026/29/1180 | Odisha      | Bargarh  | Acute Diarrhoeal Disease | 40 | 0 | 15-07-2026 | 15-07-2026 | Under control      | Cases of loose watery stools and vomiting were reported from Village Bijenagar, Sub-District Barapali, District Bargarh. District and Block RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 11-30 years. The suspected source of the outbreak                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |

|                            |               |                    |                              |    |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|----------------------------|---------------|--------------------|------------------------------|----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |               |                    |                              |    |   |            |            |                           | was contaminated water and food at Bijayapalli Sebashram School. 5 rectal swab samples were tested by culture and 4 water samples were tested by H <sub>2</sub> S and OT at IPHL, Bargarh. No enteropathogenic organisms were isolated from the rectal swabs. The water samples were H <sub>2</sub> S positive, with residual chlorine (OT) <0.01 ppm. ORS was distributed. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                   |
| OD/GAJ/2026/29/1181 | Odisha | Gajapati    | Dengue                | 32 | 0 | 12-07-2026 | 14-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever were reported from Village Sara, Sub-District Kasinagar, District Gajapati. District and Block RRT investigated the outbreak. House to house fever survey was done. Cases were treated at CHC Khandava. The affected age group was 5-70 years. All 32 blood samples tested negative for malaria by RDK. Out of 10 serum samples tested for Dengue at DPHL Gajapati, 1 sample was positive by NS1 Ag ELISA). Temephos was applied to stagnant water bodies. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on vector control measures, hygiene and sanitation. |
| OD/NAB/2026/29/1182 | Odisha | Nabarangpur | Acute Gastroenteritis | 12 | 0 | 13-07-2026 | 14-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of loose watery stool were reported from Village Lalitadeipursasan, Sub-District Nabarangpur P.S, District Nabarangpur. District and Block RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 13-18 years. Cases were from Anwesha Hostel. Mass screening                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

|                            |                  |                 |                              |    |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|----------------------------|------------------|-----------------|------------------------------|----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |                  |                 |                              |    |   |            |            |                           | was conducted in the hostel. 5 water samples were tested by H <sub>2</sub> S and OT at DPHL, Rayagada; H <sub>2</sub> S was negative and residual chlorine was <0.01 ppm. 4 rectal swab samples were tested by culture, and no enteropathogenic organisms were isolated. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                   |
| OD/RAY/2026/29/1183 | Odisha    | Rayagada | Malaria               | 27 | 0 | 12-07-2026 | 13-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever were reported from Village Attada, Sub-District Seskhal, District Rayagada. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 5-15 years. 27 blood samples were tested by Rapid Diagnostic Test (Malaria Ag) from DPHL Rayagada. 23 samples were positive for Malaria falciparum and 4 were positive for Malaria vivax. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on vector control measures, hygiene and sanitation.                                |
| RJ/KOT/2026/29/1184 | Rajasthan | Kota     | Acute Gastroenteritis | 76 | 0 | 15-07-2026 | 16-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of abdominal pain, vomiting and loose motions were reported from Village Sultanpur, Sub-District Simliya, District Kota. District RRT investigated the outbreak. House to house survey was done. Cases developed symptoms after eating food at a community gathering. Cases were treated at CHC Polaikhurd. All cases recovered. Both children and adults were affected. ORS packets were given to cases. Community awareness and health education was given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water |

|                            |                                                     |                               |                                 |    |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|----------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|---------------------------------|----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |                                                     |                               |                                 |    |   |            |            |                           | and food habits, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| TN/THE/2026/29/1185 | Tamil Nadu                                   | Theni                  | Chikungunya              | 31 | 0 | 18-07-2026 | 18-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever with joint pain were reported from Village Bangalapatti-South Street-Ward No. 4, Sub-District Periyakulam, District Theni. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 5-60 years. 2 serum samples were tested at the District Integrated Public Health Laboratory, Government Hospital, Theni, by IgM ELISA. Of these, 1 sample tested positive for Chikungunya virus. Anti-larval activities were done in the affected area. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on vector control measures, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                         |
| DN/DAD/2026/29/1186 | The Dadra And Nagar Haveli And Daman And Diu | Dadra And Nagar Haveli | Acute Diarrhoeal Disease | 12 | 0 | 16-07-2026 | 15-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of loose motion, vomiting and abdominal cramps were reported from Village Ahirfalia (Ward No 3) near Guashala, Sub-District and District Dadra And Nagar Haveli. District RRT investigated the outbreak. House to house survey was done. The affected age group was 18-44 years. The event was a suspected common-source waterborne acute gastroenteritis outbreak. Medicine and ORS packets were given to cases. 1 stool sample collected, tested negative for cholera by culture. Chlorine drops were distributed to the households. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and |

|                            |                      |                   |                                 |     |   |            |            |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|----------------------------|----------------------|-------------------|---------------------------------|-----|---|------------|------------|---------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                            |                      |                   |                                 |     |   |            |            |                           | sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| UP/BAR/2026/29/1187 | Uttar Pradesh | Bara Banki | Chickenpox               | 14  | 0 | 13-07-2026 | 14-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever with vesicular rash were reported from Village Kharsotia, Sub-District Haidergarh, District Bara Banki. District RRT investigated the outbreak. Active search for fever cases was done. The affected age group was 10-66 years. Cases were treated symptomatically. Cases were clinically diagnosed with chickenpox. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on isolation of cases, hygiene maintenance and proper nutrition.                                                                                                                                                      |
| UP/LAL/2026/29/1188 | Uttar Pradesh | Lalitpur   | Suspected Food Poisoning | 114 | 0 | 16-07-2026 | 16-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of abdominal pain, nausea and vomiting were reported from Village Dhorra, Sub-District Lalitpur, District Lalitpur. District RRT investigated the outbreak. Cases were students of Atal Awasiya Vidyalaya Dhaura, who fell ill after eating food at the hostel mess. Cases were treated at a temporary medical camp established in the school premises. 37 cases were treated at Autonomous Medical College Lalitpur. All cases recovered. Cases were in the age group 10-15 years. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation. |
| WB/BAN/2026/29/1189 | West Bengal   | Bankura    | Hepatitis A              | 16  | 0 | 12-07-2026 | 14-07-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of nausea, anorexia, abdominal pain and fever were reported from Village Manipur, Sub-District Taldangra, District Bankura. District RRT investigated the outbreak. House to house survey was done. Cases were treated. The affected age group was 3-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |

|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  | 45 years. 8 serum samples were collected and sent to the School of Tropical Medicine, Kolkata for HAV, HEV, and Leptospira IgM antibodies testing. Of these, 6 samples were found to be positive for HAV IgM. Chlorination of water sources was done. Community awareness and health education was given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation. |
|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

DISEASE OUTBREAKS OF PREVIOUS WEEKS REPORTED LATE

| Unique ID.          | Name of State-UT | Name of District | Disease-Illness       | No. of Cases | No. of Deaths | Date of Start Outbreak | Current Status     | Comments- Action Taken                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|---------------------|------------------|------------------|-----------------------|--------------|---------------|------------------------|--------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| AS/DHE/2026/29/1190 | Assam            | Dhemaji          | Japanese Encephalitis | 44           | 1             | 01-03-2026             | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever, headache, body pain and seizure were reported from multiple places of District Dhemaji. District RRT investigated the outbreak. Both children and adults were affected. 44 CSF samples were collected and tested at DPHL Dhemaji, LMCH Lakhimpur and AMCH Dibrugarh. 10 samples were positive for Japanese Encephalitis (IgM ELISA). 4 cases were unvaccinated, 39 cases were vaccinated and the status of 2 was not known. 1 JE death in a 43 year-old female was reported on 10-07-2026. Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on vector control measures, hygiene and sanitation. |
| MP/SHI/2026/29/1191 | Madhya Pradesh   | Shivpuri         | Measles               | 5            | 0             | 08-07-2026             | Under Surveillance | Cases of fever with rash were reported from Village Badagaon, Sub-District Shivpuri, District Shivpuri. District RRT investigated the outbreak. The affected age group was 1-7 years. 5 blood samples were tested at GMC Bhopal Lab. 4 samples tested positive for Measles virus (IgM ELISA). Community awareness and health education given by the peripheral team on isolation of cases and immunisation, hygiene and sanitation.                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

|                     |               |         |                       |    |   |            |                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|---------------------|---------------|---------|-----------------------|----|---|------------|--------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| UP/KAN/2026/29/1192 | Uttar Pradesh | Kannauj | Acute Gastroenteritis | 68 | 0 | 15-05-2026 | Under Surveillance | Cases of abdominal pain and vomiting were reported from Village Simuapur, Sub-District Umarda, District Kannauj. District RRT investigated the outbreak. Cases fell sick after eating prasad at a religious ceremony. Cases were treated at health facilities. Both children and adults were affected. Community awareness and health education was given by the peripheral team on safe drinking water and food habits, hygiene and sanitation. |
|---------------------|---------------|---------|-----------------------|----|---|------------|--------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

COVID-19 STATUS

COVID-19 was declared as a pandemic on 11th March, 2020. The States have been reporting the COVID-19 cases and deaths on a real-time basis and the same was being updated on the website of Ministry of Health and Family Welfare. This is made available on public domain and can be accessed through <https://www.mohfw.gov.in/>